

Pathfinder School Conducts Hall of Fame Induction and Renames New Pathfinder School In Honor Of Colonel Robert L Howard (MOH)

On Oct 1 2015 five MOH Recipients that were/are Pathfinder qualified and another Pathfinder Qualified Soldier were inducted into the Pathfinder Hall of Fame. The Ceremony was held in conjunction with the National Pathfinders Association's (NAP) reunion.

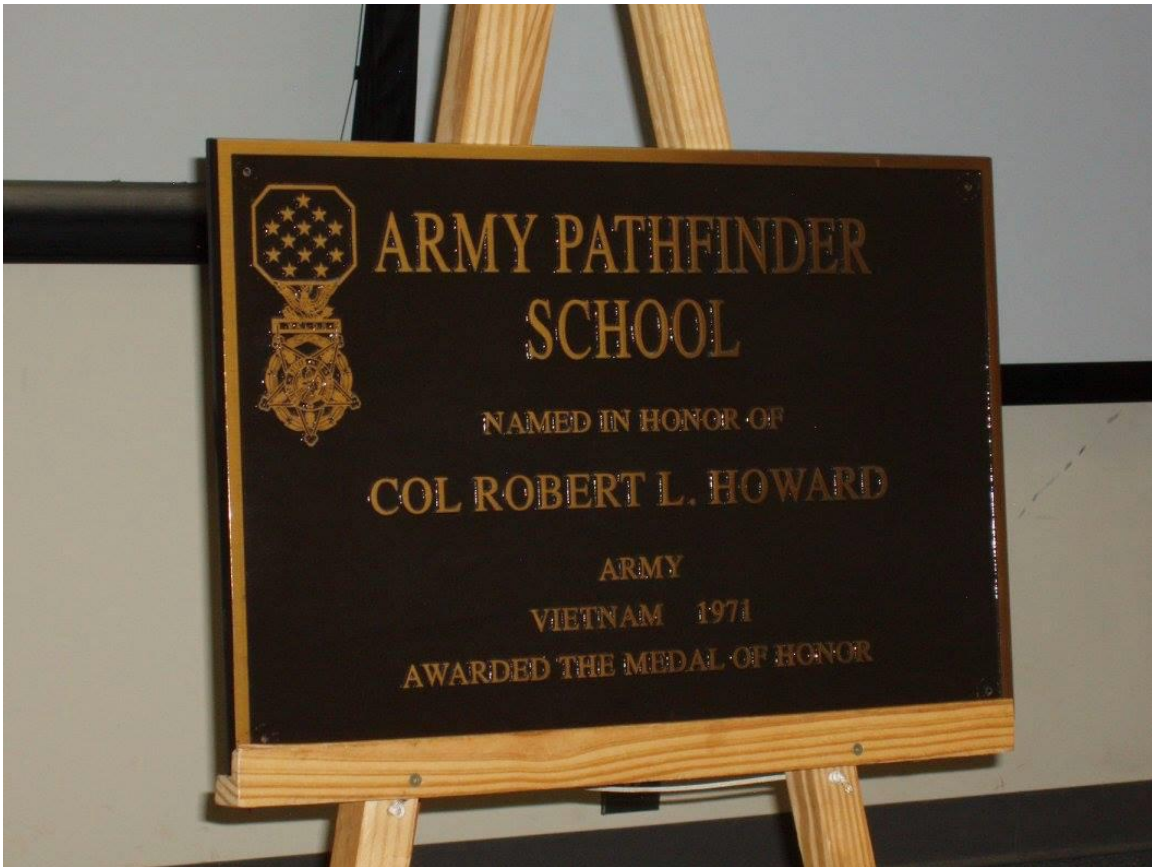

Several members of NAP presented the inductees information to the Pathfinder Cadre during a ceremony at the Pathfinder School on Ft Benning, GA. The six Pathfinders that were inducted into the PHOF were: Colonel Robert L Howard (MOH), (deceased), Colonel Richard D Gillem, LTC Alfred V Rascon (MOH), CSM Jon R Cavaiani (MOH), (deceased), MSG Ronald E Rosser (MOH), and SSG Ryan M Pitts (MOH).

After the induction ceremony was complete the Pathfinder Cadre announced that the new Pathfinder School was being named in honor of Colonel Robert L Howard (MOH) (deceased) who was also a former Pathfinder Instructor. They presented a plaque which will be displayed so all future Pathfinder students will strive to maintain the Pathfinders standards.

Colonel Howard (MOH) is a Legend within the Airborne, Pathfinder, Ranger, and Special Forces community not only for being one of our nations most decorated soldiers, he was also an instructor in each of the above courses. Colonel Howard (MOH) was instrumental in training thousands of men who will always remember him for his hard drive and leadership by example as an NCO and as an Officer.

The National Pathfinder Association is one of the largest Pathfinder Associations who continue to support the Pathfinder School and maintain the Pathfinder History and traditions. Semper Primus, First In....Last Out.
